

Noah M. Wick

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Noah Wick is the Director of Marketing and Business Development at Prolumina. His passion for success and determination to fulfill others' needs sets the tone for everything he does for his clients, co-workers, family and community. Noah is responsible for establishing and developing Prolumina's client relationships over the regional legal community, as well as overseeing the website, marketing campaigns and collateral materials. Noah represents Prolumina through effective networking with attorneys, litigation staff and various speaking engagements.

Before joining Prolumina, Noah was employed for several years with the Seattle law firm Johnson, Graffe, Key, Moniz & Wick, LLP. He also started a non-profit organization for music booking, GIRO Entertainment. Both his experience in marketing, law and event management and his passion for helping others provided him with the opportunity to make the professional obligations of attorneys more manageable.

After conquering testis cancer in 2007, Noah found many ways of giving back to the community. He is the Entertainment Chair for American Cancer Society and helps host music entertainment for events such as Relay for Life as well as various benefit concerts in Seattle. He contributes to the Shelby Webster Testis Cancer Benefit Fund and annually hosts a benefit at The Triple Door - all proceeds go to Virginia Mason Medical Center and Benaroya Cancer Research Center. Noah earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communication from the Edward R. Murrow School of Communication at Washington State University. After graduating, he worked in New York City producing concerts such as Guns N' Roses and Red Hot Chili Peppers at Madison Square Garden. Noah is currently a graduate student at Gonzaga University where he will earn a Masters Degree in Communication and Leadership Studies by 2010.

Noah is a 6 year member of the Air National Guard as a Dental Technician/Hygienist and monitors the Health Promotions program. He is currently holding the rank of Staff Sergeant and has highly decorated for his work serving the USA. Noah enjoys nutrition, weightlifting, and competing in bodybuilding competitions. He has also played the drums for over 18 years and performs at concerts for various bands around town.
